PROCLAMATION
BY THE
Governor of the State of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS COME:

Pursuant to the provisions of Article IV, Section 8 of the Texas Constitution, I, William P. Clements, Jr., Governor of Texas, do hereby call a special session of the 70th Legislature, to be convened in the City of Austin, commencing at 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, the 2nd day of June, 1987, for the following purposes:

- (1) to consider legislation relating to the provision and regulation of liability insurance;
- (2) to consider legislation relating to the venue of civil actions;
- (3) to consider legislation relating to prejudgment interest in civil cases; and
- (4) to consider legislation relating to revising the Civil Practice and Remedies Code to reform procedures and remedies in civil actions for personal injury, property damage, or death and civil actions based on tortious conduct, including revisions and additions to laws governing the determination of and limitations on liability and damages.

The Secretary of State will take notice of this action and will notify the members of the Legislature.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of the state to be affixed hereto at Austin, this 2nd day of June, 1987.

WILLIAM P. CLEMENTS, JR.
Governor of Texas
